Collier Joins Waller & Company Team

Waller & Company Public Relations Inc., a Tulsa-based full service public relations and marketing firm, announces the addition of Rhonda Collier in the new position of operations manager.

Collier's responsibilities will include but are not limited to oversight of accounts payable, billing, inventory management, human resources and benefits and firm-sponsored event planning.

Collier's previous positions include customer service and sales with Brookside merchant Allen's Gourmet Grocery and accounts payable/bookkeeping duties for the H.R. Collier Oil and Gas business.

Additionally, Collier's work experiences include office management and billing in the healthcare and petroleum industries in Tulsa. She attended Northeastern State University in Tahlequah, Okla. and received a bachelor of business administration in finance in 1993.
